Sound Telling Stories

Music is what feelings sound like. Tell your story, listen to our music.

Wedding

Our music has been sent to hundreds of weddings and it always has been special. We love the tailor cure, the personalized cut and we know how to tell the story in music about your love. We feed our passion with care, elegance, style and quality music since 2007, bringing it all to the wedding events.

Corporate & Teambuilding

Listening, analyzing and planning are the key points that make up the musical selection we offer. A personalized storytelling brought by a team who has worked competently for years, paying attention to our overall image, to guarantee to music its role in business relations. Discover also our Sound Telling Stories, a new fun and light concept, designed to recreate union and motivation between colleagues and confirm the sense of company belonging. Also in Web Edition!

Lights & Services

Staging, lighting and audio-video supplies are in our competences for any kind of event, starting from the project to the performance. We provide a professional service with audio/lightning technical experts and a wide top quality facilities.
